

- A Taste of Lone Tree will be held Saturday & Sunday, August 13 & 14, 2011 from 11:00 am to 6:00 pm at Lincoln Commons at RidgeGate
  - Punch cards will be sold for food and drink purchases at designated 'ticket' booths
  - Each punch on the card is valued at $2
  - 'Tastes' will be priced at $2 or $4
  - Food and drinks (other than water) will not be sold for cash
  - Water will be available for $1 at all designated 'ticket' booths
- An anticipated 25-30 local area restaurants will provide 'tastes' of their dishes each day
- Approximately 50 fine artisans will showcase their offerings throughout the event
- Tours of the new Lone Tree Arts Center will be available both days of A Taste of Lone Tree. Come check out our city's new, beautiful arts center before the official grand opening and learn more about season tickets and the programming and events that are scheduled! This is also a wonderful venue to hold your next event so don't miss this opportunity!
- Select wineries and microbrews will sample moderate to midlevel priced wines and beer
  - There will be an entrance fee of $15 at the beer and wine tent(s)
  - Patrons will be allowed unlimited samples of beer and wine for the $15 fee each day
- In 2010, the Taste had approximately 5000 paid attendees
- Attendees will be drawn predominantly from Lone Tree, Highlands Ranch, and other Douglas County communities as well the greater south metro area
- Media may be present at the event, however plans have not yet been finalized
- The Chamber will provide security and traffic direction for event parking throughout the weekend
  - In addition, traffic flow will be provided for patrons to access local retailers at Lincoln Commons
